Dear Friends,

I am very excited this month as we are drawing near to our first graduation of our Vasile Gherman Pastor School in Turnu Severin Romania. That is such a praise unto the Lord. I cannot tell you of the countless hours and sacrifice that multiple men have made to make this a reality. Dr. Danny Akin, President of Southeastern Theological Seminary, and Dr. Marty Jacumin, Pastor of Bayleaf Baptist Church of Wake Forest, NC, traveled in June to teach a Theology Class for our students. Southeastern Theological Seminary has sent multiple professors over to teach and we are so thankful to them. I have to be honest it is one thing to allow men to travel to Romania and teach, but it is another thing to go yourself! I want to personally thank Dr. Danny Akin for his willingness to take the time out of his busy schedule and invest in the lives of these Pastors in Romania. It says a lot about a man's heart when he gives of himself. I also want to thank Dr. Jacumin. He has served on our Board of Directors in the past and has been a true blessing to our ministry. In October this group of students will have their last class and then graduate. Dr. Randy Mann, of Wake Cross Roads Baptist Church, of Rolesville, NC, will be teaching Apologetics. I am looking forward to traveling over as well for the graduation. I want to thank each of you for your part in this school. Through your prayers and financial support, God has used you to make this a reality. Please keep our mission teams in your prayers. Please continue to lift us up as we, together, "touch the world" with the gospel of Christ!

In Him
