September, 2016 Newsletter

Volume 15, Issue 7

As I am writing this newsletter my heart is thinking about the sights and smells of El Salvador. I have been privileged to make several trips down to visit Bob and Angelique Kendrick. Once, while I was there our team took part in passing out the Christmas Shoe boxes that you wonderful people had sent. I cannot express the joy that a simple shoe box brings to a child that has never received a gift of this kind in their lives. I want you to know that in each setting there was tremendous excitement. And Kendrick Ministries uses this excitement to share the good news of Jesus Christ. The local churches were used as distribution points. The churches were filled with children and parents. The team would do a skit and the children would laugh with eyes full of excitement. Then the gospel would be shared. A Savior was born, lived, died, but resurrected that we might have eternal life if we place our faith in Him. The gifts represented the greatest gift ever given to mankind, Jesus Christ. Each time, the children listened intently to hear about our Savior. This, my friend, is what Touch the World is all about. Partnering with great ministries like Kendrick's Ministries to help spread the good news of the gospel! I find myself wishing I could transport every supporter to El Salvador, if only for a few moments so you could experience what I got to see firsthand. In a sense, you are there every time you give a box or donate monies, or send clothes; you have a tremendous part in this ministry. I wish we could all go, but in reality I know we can't. Please understand that everything we do, every project we are a part of, you are on our team. May the Lord bless you as you serve Him. I hope as you are putting your boxes together this year, you can get a picture of all the smiling faces that will be receiving them.
