"Say not ye, there are yet four months and then cometh the harvest? Behold I say unto you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are already white to harvest." (John 4:39)

The above verse of scripture has been one of the motivating scriptures since the inception of TTWM in 1998. It is more true today than it has ever been. While the whole world is the harvest field and all of it is a potential reservoir to draw from for the growth of the Kingdom of God, it seems that at this time in history there are many more souls being brought into the Kingdom in other parts of the world than there are in America. Consequently, the work of TTWM has become even more important now than it has ever been. The greatest harvest of souls that we see now is taking place in the countries of India and on the continent of Africa. God is even moving in these countries to initiate and grow the Kingdom with the indigenous resources of those countries. Amazing how God prospers those who use what they have for the Kingdom of God. We are rejoicing and praise God that even this very week God raised up a donor in one of the countries that we work in Africa who provided from their own resources the funds needed to get a project over a financial hump that was facing us. That donation helped to preserve the investment we had made so far and get us to a point where we could comfortably seek the balance needed to complete the project. Additionally, God laid it on another brother's heart in Michigan to fund a well in Indian that we had been praying for some time. The brother knew nothing of the well or our prayers, he just felt the need to call.

There are so many of you that pray faithfully for the work of TTWM and give regularly to keep the work going. I can never thank you enough for letting God use you as He does. Without you, TTWM would not exist nor be able to do the work we do today. Only eternity will tell of the impact God has made through you. Should God lay a burden on your heart to know more about the work and different projects, please let me know. We have opportunities from sponsoring a child for $25.00 a month to rebuilding an entire village in Uganda for $30,000.00 that would provide homes and change the lives of dozens of families, to building a school in India for $145,000.00 that would give 1200 children per year a world class education in a Christian environment. And there are many others.

Until He comes or calls us home,

Homer
